

DELIVER US FROM EVIL. America is not immune to international terrorism, we are told. And the U.S. is ripe for such activities. So concerned are our elected federal representatives that they have held hearings on the subject. Such "conservative" luminaries as Reps. John Ashbrook (R-Ohio) and Larry McDonald (D-Ga.) and Sen. Jeremiah Denton (R-Ala.) have assured us that they will expose this creeping blight. But where are they when the terroristic Jewish Defense League (JDL) is concerned? A case in point: Mordecai (Mark) Levy, head of the JDL in Los Angeles, was arrested on September 9 on a charge of firebombing a Nigerian diplomat's car in New York. A few days earlier, Levy physically assaulted an alleged "Nazi war criminal" (77-year-old Latvian Boleshavs Maikovsis) as Maikovsis was leaving a New York courtroom. Levy was arrested in Los Angeles, charged with putting a firebomb under the diplomat's car. He was previously named as involved in the firebombing of the office of the Institute for Historical Review in Torrance, California and the apartment of a Liberty Lobby official. The JDL has denied responsibility for the firebomb attacks, but applauds the bombings themselves—as it usually does in cases like this. Levy has bragged many times of "high up connections" and "you can't touch me." The prosecutor wanted bail set at $25,000 but the judge held it to $10,000 and set him free. Congress can't seem to make the JDL-terrorism connection.

Terrorist bomber Mordecai (Mark) Levy (with baseball bat) is pictured with one of his mentors, Irv Rubin (foreground) director of the violence prone Jewish Defense League (JDL) and other assorted cohorts.